01 About

Delivery Director with 18 years leading the delivery of complex digital transformation, digital product, SaaS and experience design programmes. I'm brought in when delivery is at risk or needs building from scratch. I stabilise it and turn it into a well-run, well-governed operation that ships, staying hands-on throughout.

I put the missing governance and ways of working in place and coach the teams that run them. I founded and ran a design and digital consultancy for five years, so I understand commercial reality as well as delivery. More recently I've led AI product delivery and adoption.

Programme Director, Transformation & AI

Brought in to turn around a major transformation programme at risk: an £8m-a-year, 18-month programme with complex technical architecture, extensive third-party integrations and heavy cross-team dependencies. Led a 50-person team across 5 workstreams and 8 integration partners, reporting to the COO. Rebuilt Agile ways of working, offshore communications and governance, lifting productivity by around 40%. Went on to lead the development of Model Sight, an AEO (Answer Engine Optimisation) SaaS product used across multiple clients, showing brands how they rank inside LLMs. Also managed a portfolio of AI projects across the business.
